

CHAPTER 445

An act to amend Section 32126 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hospital districts and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32126 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

32126. The board of directors may provide for the operation and maintenance through tenants of the whole or any part of any hospital acquired or constructed by it pursuant to this division, and for such purpose may enter into any lease agreement which it believes will best serve the interest of the district; provided, that any such lease entered into for the operation of any hospital shall require the tenant or lessee to conform to and abide by each and all of the provisions of Section 32128 of this article. No such lease for the operation of an entire hospital shall run for a term in excess of 30 years. No such lease for the operation of less than an entire hospital shall run for a term in excess of 10 years.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the orderly administration of the operation and maintenance of hospital districts, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 446

An act to add Section 5 to an initiative act entitled the "Osteopathic Act," approved by the electors November 7, 1922, relating to physicians and surgeons.

[Approved by Governor July 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5 is added to the act cited in the title, to read:

Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on and after the effective date of this section, a graduate of an osteopathic medical school shall apply for a physician's and surgeon's certificate from the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, which has the sole power to issue a physician's and surgeon's certificate to an osteopathic-trained physician and surgeon.

It shall be unprofessional conduct for a physician and surgeon licensed by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners to apply for a physician's and surgeon's certificate from a board other than the Board of Osteopathic Examiners.

This section shall not prohibit the renewal of a physician's and surgeon's certificate which was issued by a board other than the Board of Osteopathic Examiners prior to the effective date of this section.

CHAPTER 447

An act to add Section 13217 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire protection, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13217 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13217. (a) The fire department of any city or county may annually inspect all high-rise structures for compliance with building standards and other regulations of the State Fire Marshal. If a local agency elects to perform the inspection, the results of the inspection shall be submitted to the State Fire Marshal's office in a form and manner approved by the State Fire Marshal no later than 30 days after the date of the inspection. If the local fire department elects not to conduct an inspection, the State Fire Marshal shall conduct the inspection.

(b) A local agency which inspects a high-rise structure pursuant to subdivision (a) may charge and collect a fee for the inspection from the owner of the high-rise structure in an amount, as determined by the local agency, sufficient to pay its costs of that inspection.

(c) If the State Fire Marshal conducts an inspection pursuant to subdivision (a), the State Fire Marshal shall determine his or her costs of the inspection and submit a claim for that amount, together with a designation of the city or county in which the inspection was conducted, to the Controller. Notwithstanding Section 11005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the Controller shall deduct the claimed amount from the moneys allocated pursuant to Section 11005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to the designated city or county and transfer that amount to the State Fire Marshal to pay the costs of the inspections, and the Controller shall distribute the balance to the
